

Full- stack platform for

PROGRESSIVE HORTICULTURE

Farmers in India & SE Asia

Summary

Key points:

1. A Japanese conglomerate ran programs with Chilli & Tomato crops 2 states in India.
2. Locations: Siddipet, Telangana & Ropar, Punjab
3. Sample Size: 30 farmers
4. This presentation summarises their results across seasons and 2 years on aspects like yield, reduction in irrigation, pesticides, labour, fertilizer, electricity and income increase.

★
Consolidated Outcome for Tomato

Increase of:

27% Yield

1.37 Income

Reduction of:

29% Irrigation water use

29% Electricity use

6% labour use

10% pesticide use

26% fertilizer use

★
Consolidated Outcome

Increase of:

25% Yield

1.67 Income

Reduction of:

23% Irrigation water use

23% Electricity use

8% labour use

14% pesticide use

28% fertilizer use

★
Consolidated Outcome for Tomato

Increase of:

24% Yield

Reduction of:

37% Irrigation water use

37% Electricity use

10% labour use

57% pesticide use

53% fertilizer use

★
Consolidated Outcome for Chilli

Increase of:

28% Yield

Reduction of:

32% Irrigation water use

32% Electricity use

21% labour use

14% pesticide use

21% fertilizer use

Shailendra Tiwari (Founder/CEO)
Email: shailendra.tiwari@wolkus.com
Phone: +91 8262908981
www.fasal.co

	3 Patents		IMD Certified		Nasscom's 'Emerge 50' recognition
	NABL Certified		TEC Certified		Forbes Asia 100 To Watch 2021
	CE Tested		The ET Now SME Transformers 2024		Warrior of Change Awards 2021
	Best use of AI in Agriculture		The IMARK design award		Featured by Mongabay
	Next Gen Product of the Year		Featured on BBC Global		Agritech startups India - CNBC
	Featured in NHK Japan		Best Rural Brand Nov 2023		Featured on History TV18

Backed by